PROJECTS

AI Interview Platform React.js, Tailwind CSS, Node.js, Express.js, PostgreSQL, JWT, OpenAI API - Engineered an AI Interview Platform enabling users to practice technical and HR interviews with AI-generated questions. - Designed the full-stack application using React.js, Node.js, Express.js, PostgreSQL, JWT Authentication, and OpenAI API with secure authentication, interview session management, and user progress tracking. - Generated AI-powered interview reports containing personalized feedback, strengths, weaknesses, and improvement suggestions after each interview. - Established secure user authentication and maintained interview history using JWT-based authorization and PostgreSQL. - Leveraged the OpenAI API to create context-aware interview questions and adaptive feedback based on candidate responses.	GitHub
E-Commerce Website Django, Python, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MySQL - Created a full-stack E-Commerce platform supporting secure authentication, product management, shopping cart, and order processing. - Enabled role-based access control for customers and administrators through secure login and registration workflows. - Added dynamic product search, category filtering, shopping cart, and checkout functionalities. - Constructed an admin dashboard for efficient management of products, categories, users, and customer orders. - Utilized Django ORM and relational database design to organize and retrieve product, order, and user information efficiently.	GitHub
Mini Games Hub Django, Python, HTML, CSS, JavaScript - Created a browser-based gaming platform featuring five interactive games using Django and JavaScript. - Developed Tic-Tac-Toe, Rock-Paper-Scissors, Snake, Memory Card, and Number Guessing games with interactive gameplay. - Added score tracking, game state management, and restart functionality using JavaScript. - Organized reusable templates and shared components through Django template inheritance for maintainable code. - Managed user sessions to provide seamless navigation across multiple games.
